What three words would your friends use to describe your personality?

What are two of your best qualities that make you a good addition to the Youth Council?

Write about something you have learned at your youth group or church in the past school year.
Give at least one specific example.

What person living today do you greatly admire, and why?

In what ways are you involved in your church?

Please list the name and contact information of one adult (not a parent) we can speak with as a character reference.

I am committing myself to UOVP Youth Council for one term (September 2011 – August 2012).
During that time, Youth Council will be a priority. I will strive to live a life that honors Christ.
I agree to follow all of the guidelines of Youth Council as they pertain to my volunteer position, and I understand that failure to do so will result in my being asked to leave the program.
